

TORRANCE, REDONDO IN SCORELESS TIE

SEAHAWK BALLHAWKS . . . Redondo Halfback Bruce Seifert, 49, sets to recover loose ball (arrow) in mid-air during action in game with Torrance Thursday night. Fumble had been caused when Laddie Conger, 45, on ground, had been hit hard while cutting back off tackle. Tartars in the picture include Bob Curran, 27, Skip Smith, 32, and Dick Custer, 4. Seahawks are Dean Moore, 48, Mike Purcell, 88, and Lynn Hoyem, 58.

BLASTS AHEAD . . . Skip Smith, 32, Tartar fullback, leaves Redondo defender eating dust as he turns the end and starts up field in Tartar-Seahawk traditional here Thursday night. Smith, who got game's only touchdown only to have it recalled by penalty, went 11 yards on this gallop. Redondo End Squeak Valenzuela, 52, trails play.

Only Tally Nixed By Clipping Call

Torrance and Redondo gridders huffed and puffed through four quarters of thrilling football Thursday night here, but their efforts ended in a frustrating 0-0 tie before 2500 THS Homecoming fans.

Mira Costa moves in to face the Tartars here Friday night in the season finale.

The Tartars registered the lone "tally" of the game when Skip Smith latched on to Seahawk Dean Moore's pass on the final play of the first half and returned it 50 yards to paydirt, but a clipping penalty nullified the score. The penalty was one of nine against the locals, amounting to a massive 108 yards. The 'Hawks escaped the officials' detection without a single penalty.

Deepest penetration into enemy territory in the first half went to the Tarts, who recovered a bobble by Redondo Halfback Claude Dailey on the Seahawks' 28 yard marker. Smith got two yards through middle on first down, then one more on the second play. But a 15-yard holding call put the ball back on the Redondo 37 and the locals ran out of gas right there.

The Seahawks got to the Torrance 37 by means of a 15-yard clipping penalty, but they were smeared in their tracks. Smith shot the gap from his linebacker's post and threw Bruce Seifert for a nine yard loss on a double reverse that fooled no one. Then Moore tried two long tosses, which went unattended by the Tartar defense but fell out of reach of open Seahawk receivers, and the only Redondo threat in the first half was finished.

Smith's "almost" touchdown came shortly thereafter, and was set up by some savage blocking by defensiveness Bill Montgomery, Butch Hazel and Dave Conry.

The four officials could get together on whether or not a Tartar had committed a rules infraction. Three of the striped shirt crew signaled a teedee, one called a clipping penalty and the four argued for three minutes before they called it no score and sent the teams in for the recess.

Do Damage
In the second half, Redondo did the most damage, hot-footing it to the Tartar two yard line on one occasion and vanishing to five with an intercepted pass as the game ended. On the final play, which came after the gun as Redondo had called a time out, Tartar QB Bertoliet almost had his pass backfire. He threw long downfield but Laddie Conger picked it off for the Seahawks and legged it down the right sidelines, bent on scoring. Hazel and Smith almost tore the 5' 5", 145-pound loose from his socks as they swarmed on him on the Tartar five to end the fray.

The best opportunity to score in the second half came when the Hawks took a punt on the Tartar 45 with three minutes remaining in the fray. Moore, who threw six high pass attempts all night but seemed to have no sense of direction, hit End Squeak Valenzuela with a 16 yard toss to the Torrance 29.

On the next play, Moore hit Seifert on the two yard line and the big Redondan made a great catch, grabbing the ball out of the grasp of a Tartar defender. He was forced out of bounds in his tracks.

With first and goal on the two, two minutes left, Moore turned to hand off, was smothered from behind by Montgomery, fumbled and the locals recovered. The game ended with the Tartars on their own 10.

POST-GAME MORTEMS . . . It was the Tartar offense again that did the big job, with the offensive gang looking for the most part, Edith, Ballhacks Jerry Frubies and John Gomez added some fire, especially the rugged Hughes who did his best to spark the flame for the locals.

Edith did most of the Tartar quarterbacking, after Charles Valencia suffered a final leaves the locals with one QB. They've lost and they'll have to go on more game. This week's finale, here Friday night at Mira Costa.

Smith got 75 of Torrance's net yardage of 87 on 10 carries. He was needless to say, unstoppable. Bertoliet and Valencia threw eight aerials between them and completed only one, good for three yards. They had one intercepted. Moore threw 15 and completed five, with the locals grabbing one of his tosses.

Harbor JC's Seahawks pulled the upset of the year Friday in Metropolitan Conference grid play, leading league winners and fifth ranked nationally Valley JC, 18-7, on the Seahawks home grounds.

Harbor, in fifth place in the loop with a 2-2-1 mark before game time, racked up the Valleyites but good.

Coach Joe Berry's boys spotted the Monarchs a 7-0 lead in the first period and then proceeded 1-1 to pick up points in each of the second, third and fourth periods.

Tailback Dick Harris tossed for two Harbor tallies and then bucked over from one yard out, to figure in all the winners' points.

Harris passed to 6'4" End Bob Cook for 45 yards and a touchdown, the Hawks' first score, midway in the second period. The halftime tally was 7-6 for Valley.

In the third period, the Seahawks latched on to the ball at midfield and marched the way to paydirt. Harris dived over from the one. Then, in the final quarter, it was Harris again, who passed this time to End George Padovan. Padovan took the ball on the Valley 40 and romped the remainder of the distance. The play covered 60 yards.

Kotal Gets Teedee
Quarterback Tom Kotal got the Monarchs' only tally, bucking over on a sneak from the two-yard line, early in the first period. Kotal also booted the extra point and the Valleyites looked on their way. It wasn't so, as the Harbor eleven put up a stout defense even to the game.

Mambo Gals Win Tourney
The Mamboeas won possession of the perpetual trophy for the year at the first annual Girls' Volleyball Tournament, sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department.

They took a play off game from the Startlets to nab the tourney title recently. The winners' record was 8 and 2.

The Startlets placed second in the six-team tournament, with a 7-3 mark.

As the WHRA heads into its semi-final week, all eyes will be focused on the second dash for the pacers, which will bring together one of the greatest bands of midweekers ever assembled. All eyes were on the banner aggregation two weeks ago, but most of them saw little but fog and smog as over a quarter-mile of the famed race was blanketed from view because of the overcast.

Redondo Upsets Tartarbees By 19-12 Count

By Leigh Hunt

Going into the game as a three touchdown favorite, the Tartars were frustratedly tumbled in a surprise upset in a 19-12 win by the determined Redondo Bees Thursday at Redondo.

Over confidence was given as the defeat cause by coaches Dave Dana and Herb Solomon. It was tactically working all the way with Redondo's Gonzales floating a long pass to left end Goble, who took it for a touchdown in the closing quarter of the game. As the gun sounded, the Torrance Bees were frantically working to get from behind the one touchdown margin.

The defeat was handed Torrance despite a comparatively easy time by the Tartars in registering their two touchdowns. An intercepted pass to Mick Babbitt who scampered 90 yards for a touchdown, and a Babbitt to Carlos Acosta pass from the 10 yard line, after a down field drive, where the Tartarbees scores.

Score Tied Twice
The game score was tied twice during the fracas, once at 6-6 and again at 12-12. Half time score was 12-6 for Redondo.

After Torrance received the opening kickoff, the two teams fell on downs on their first tries. Torrance took over a fumble by Redondo on their one yard line but booted out of danger on the first play. Redondo took the ball and, starting from the 25, worked to the Tartar 4. On third down, after two attempts through the line failed, Gonzales swept right end for the first score of the game. The extra point try failed.

On the next play, Tartarbee Bob Grajeda took the kickoff on the 10 but was downed on the 20. The Tartars then drove from there to the Seahawk 25, but failed to make the all-important first down. After an exchange of punts, the Seahawks threatened again. Babbitt ended their scoring threat by intercepting Gonzales' pass on his own 10 and running 80 long yards for the Tartars first score. Score now stood at 6-6.

Redondo then ran the kickoff from the 30 to the 50 and in six plays were on the Tartar one yard line. Fullback Klingner went over for the Seahawks to go out front 12-6.

In the third quarter, Redondo received the kickoff on the 20 and in two plays drove to the 50, but fumbled with Steve Foster recovering for Torrance. After both sides fumbled once, with Gary Von Steeg finally recovering for Torrance, they started a down field drive to the Seahawks 10 where Babbitt hit Acosta with a pass to tie the score, 12-12.

The Seahawks came right back to score on a long pass from quarterback Gonzales to left end Goble who scored the winning touchdown.
